Will your organization join us for RCCongress 2020?

Since 1970, the Religion Communication Congress has been a once-a-decade gathering of professional religion communicators from a wide range of faith traditions.

The first Congress arose from a simple idea: to provide a forum to expand the experience and broaden the perspective of professional communicators in faith-based settings beyond their specialized work area.

Participants benefit from:

- hands-on opportunities to learn new technologies
- academic and applied research
- round-tables for exchanging views on important communications issues
- dozens of practical workshops with tools you can implement immediately
- an opportunity to experience a wide range of faith expressions
- cross-pollination of creative ideas and innovations by mixing with professionals from all media disciplines
- global views and local relevance

A Religion Communication Congress takes dedicated time and effort from a large number of people. Now is the time to express your interest in RCCongress 2020!

What could Congress 2020 look like? Tell us by returning this interest form or filling it out online to assist with the initial organizing of the Congress.
